

CROSS LINKS

Key:  Men's  Women  Families  Strategic

55 & Older A fun and energetic group of men and women who dive into God's word through Sunday school lessons, weekly prayer, breakfast fellowships, and Godly connectivity. Ages 55 and older are welcome.

ABIDE College Group Young adults gather together to worship, and dive deeper into God's word. This group also does various activities such as Outings, Socials, Bible Study, Missions, and Mentorship.

ARISE Men's Group Men of the Cross seek to make an impact, not an impression, by equipping men through biblical teaching, biblical living, fellowship, accountability, and friendship. These men believe each man of God will be known by what he flees from, follows after, fights for, and is faithful to.

BLOOM Women's Group Women of the Cross "bloom" together. This is an interactive fellowship and Bible study that requires one thing... YOU! These ladies are dedicated to prayer, accountability, transparency, sharing, caring, and God's Word.

Broken Together (Ages 40-60) Married couples who truly believe being "broken together" is the only authentic way to have a marriage that ultimately glorifies God. We are excited to spark laughter, rich marriage conversation, and the truth of God's Word.

Concealed Men that go through the 210 Project and follow with going to a gun range. If you like getting closer to God and going to a shooting range, this is for you.

DIGG (Digging into God's Grace) Women AM Group Ladies age 30+ meet with the singular intention to seek to know God and His Word. Join some amazing ladies for great Bible studies, connectivity, prayer, and fellowship.

Foundations 101 Crosslinks understands the details that come with growing busy families. The studies chosen in this group focus on building personal foundations resulting in strong established faith for Christian homes.

Freebirds A delightful and spiritually seasoned group of husbands & wives who enjoy meeting together and sharing the love of Jesus as they encourage one another in faith, prayer. They are truly Freebirds, with no children in the home.

GCWB (God's Children Who Believe) Middle school boys and girls enjoy a guided Bible study, fun Bible time, delicious snacks, and activities to make any middle schooler excited. Get your child connected today.

GROW (God Renewing Our Women) Wed PM Group A guided women's study using DVDs, books, and other ministry tools to tackle life's ups & downs together as women in the Word. Ladies 20+ seeking fellowship, a deeper connection in God's Word, and prayer.

Keeping it Real this is a group of families, committed to building firm biblical foundations, cultivating friendships, and sharing life challenges while walking intentionally with God.

Life in the Empty Nest A group of joyful and prayerful husbands & wives who serve our church together. Desiring to know and be known, to love and be loved, to serve and be served, and encourage one another in this season of life without children in the home.

Married-Life at The Cross Married couples go through guided Bible studies, and the newness of marriage, faith, family and prayer. Join us as we share with each other, and others married less than 10 years, as we come alongside one another discovering the truth of our faith, our family, and our connectivity through Christ!

Married with Chaos They know all too well about the chaos of juggling new and growing families. Join them as they navigate everyday life and work together, while building relationships in marriage & family, through biblical study.

Mosaic Glory A group that shares and declares God's promises together. This is a unique group all connected together by the Cross of Jesus. Join together to build an extended family for Christ.

Next Level The mission of the Next Level Crosslinks Group is to nurture discipleship and promote mature spiritual growth through prayer, Biblical study, worship, service, enjoyment, fellowship, and accountability.

Photography A group for photography enthusiasts who want to dive deeper into God's word while learning about photography. There will be occasional off-site photo shoots as well as good fellowship.

Praying Parents Sharing life, prayers and experiences together in God's word as they walk together in community fellowship, prayer, and family.

Stronger Church Understanding that learning to be good stewards of this gift (Our Temple) transforms our disciplines in every aspect of our lives. Learning to love and forgive ourselves allows us to live the life that God intended. We are then able to love one another in the way that God loves us. This group helps individuals find something they enjoy that will keep them healthy. Healthy is defined as our ability to live out this life to the fullest, able to bring glory to God regardless of our age. "Good health has no expression date"

Surviving a Prodigal This is a Bible study / support group to help parents of prodigals sort through the wreckage, build a support team, and prepare for the future...with or without the prodigal child.

The Followers This group asks, What does it take to Follow God every day? To understand what a strong relationship with Him really looks like? Dig deep into the Bible to find answers to who Jesus is and how He interacted with everyone He met. Learn what you can do to make a difference. How did God wire you to best serve Him?
